	Democrats say that they delivered on their promises to Colorado voters by enacting an ambitious and bipartisan agenda to help rebuild a stronger economy and lay the groundwork for a more prosperous future for regular Coloradans.....	55%
	Republicans say that the Democrats did whatever they wanted to do, regardless of the ramifications, by ramming through a partisan and radically liberal agenda that goes too far, too fast and will hurt regular Coloradans.	41

Q30C. [SPLIT C] [GENERAL TAXES] You will now read two statements about the Democrats' approach to taxes. Please indicate which statement you find to be more convincing, even if neither is perfect.

	Democrats say that they took important steps to fix Colorado's broken tax system by eliminating loopholes that allowed big corporations and the wealthiest Coloradans to avoid paying their fair share while reducing property taxes and cutting taxes on the small businesses and working families that drive our economy.	55%
	Republicans say that the Democrats rammed through billions in tax increases, including hiking the gas tax, allowing local governments to hike property taxes and hitting Colorado businesses with massive tax hikes that will force companies to re-locate and put undue hardship on small businesses who drive our economy...	41
VOL:	(Don't know/Refused)	4

Q30D. [SPLIT D] [TRANSPORTATION] You will now read two statements about the Democrats' transportation plan. Please indicate which statement you find to be more convincing, even if neither is perfect.

	Democrats say that after decades of population growth yet stagnant funding, Colorado's roads are in desperate need of repair, modernization, and expansion -- and that's holding our economy back. That's why they passed a groundbreaking and bipartisan transportation plan that will modernize our roads, reduce traffic, create 27,000 good-paying jobs, and boost long-term economic growth by asking those who use our roads more to pay their fair share.	54%
	Republicans say that the Democrats pulled an end-run around the state's constitution by raising the gas tax without getting approval from voters. The Democrats' gas tax hike, along with the new taxes that Coloradans will pay every time they use Uber or Lyft (lift) or order something from Amazon, will hit every single Colorado family and business at the exact worst time -- when families are struggling with the rising cost of living and the state is recovering from the recession.....	41

Q31. [CRIMINAL JUSTICE] You will now read two statements about the Democrats' approach to criminal justice. Please indicate which statement you find to be more convincing, even if neither is perfect.

		Total
		Funding Pushback	Prison Pipeline
[SPLIT C – FUNDING PUSHBACK]	Democrats say they are committed to keeping our communities safe while also making our criminal justice system fairer for all Coloradans. That's why they passed common-sense reforms to limit the use of the deadly chemicals that killed Elijah McClain, prevent police brutality, and increase accountability, while continuing to make sure that law enforcement has the resources they need by rejecting calls to defund the police.....	56%	-
[SPLIT D – PRISON PIPELINE]	Democrats say they are committed to keeping our communities safe while also making our criminal justice system safer and fairer for all Coloradans. That's why they passed common-sense reforms to limit the use of the kinds of deadly chemicals that killed Elijah McClain, prevent police brutality, increase police accountability, and interrupt the pipeline to prison for people of color who commit misdemeanors.	-	55
	Republicans say that the Democrats have pushed through pro-criminal laws that will make Coloradans less safe by tying police officers' hands and giving criminals a free pass. The Democrats are beholden to their radical base that wants to defund the police, so it's no surprise that they tied the hands of police and reduced penalties for criminals who commit violent felonies like rape, aggravated robbery, and murder.	41	41
